We also received this from another agent, but we think it is related to the message above.

The cards should be divided into two separate piles. Each card represents a letter of the alphabet. Clubs and Diamonds represent uppercase letters, while Spades and Hearts are lower case. Line the cards by suit and lay them out face up from Ace to King. There are 52 cards in a deck, so it works perfectly for sending messages by cards.